Sonoma Wine Grapes May Soar In Price. Wine Famine in France

LOCAL INFORMATION AND TELEGRAPHIC REPORTS TELL OF DAMAGE TO FRENCH VINEYARDS AND SHORT CROP.

Sonoma valley vineyardists may find themselves getting the biggest prices ever known for wine grapes this year owing to the apparently authentic reports of the widespread damage by frost and snow to vineyards abroad. A short time ago Joe Escolle, who owns a fine vineyard near Agua Caliente received a letter from his eldest sister, Mrs. W. H. Pyburn, who is traveling in Europe, telling him of the damage to vineyards, following a cold spell of unprecedented duration after the vines had started to put out their young growth. She wrote of the great anxiety over the wine shortage in France.

A telegraphic report, which appeared in the Examiner Sunday, confirms the news from Escolle's sister. The dispatch follows:

World Threatened With Wine Famine

PARIS, May 28.—A world wide famine of good wine is threatened for next year and the year after as a result of the unprecedented frost and snowfalls in the wine districts of France after a premature opening of spring.

The region around Bordeaux, where claret is produced, has been hard hit and the production this year will be only 5 per cent of normal. In the center of France the vineyards of Volnay are severely damaged.

The hardest-hit grape-growers are, however, in the Burgundy district. Scarcely any Pommard, Moulin-a-vent of Beaune will be produced this year.

This news completely robs the report current sometime ago that European grapes would be shipped to the United States and sold in competition with our own.

At the Grape Growers' Association meeting in San Francisco the prices were set from $50 to $90 for this season's crop. Burgers are to $50; Semillon and Reising, $60; Zinfandels, Missions and Rose of Peru, $70; Petit Syrahs, $75, and Alicante Bouchets, $90.

Ninety per cent of all wine grapes in the U. S. A. are grown in California. Sonoma valley is one of the choicest localities for the growing of grapes for the table wines, such as clarets and reising.

Misses Snyder and Kane, of Boston, Mass., have been guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Crane and will return home as great boosters for our fair Valley of the Moon.

Mrs. B. Behler of Glen Ellen is convalescing at the Crane sanatorium from her recent illness.

Play Was Decided Success

The play given by the high school students at the Don theatre Wednesday evening was highly successful. The clever cast consisted of Misses Beth Lane, Irma Adler, Anna Noves, Evelyn Cordell, Irene Tracie and Donald Prestwood and Robert Pompe.

BREITENBACH AND BERETTA RESIGN AS CITY TRUSTEES

City Officials Tender Resignations As Aftermath of Sonoma's City Street Paving Controversy.

City Trustees George Breitenbach and Angelo Beretta tendered their resignations as members of the Board of City Trustees of Sonoma at the regular meeting of the board Wednesday night. Their decision to forsake official life comes as a direct result of the split in the board over the letting of the contract to pave Sonoma's streets with cement concrete. Messrs. Breitenbach and Beretta were stout advocates of asphaltic concrete and defended the program to lay 3-inch pavement of this type over the present natural hard surface. They were adverse to accepting the lowest bid and had prepared a resolution to reject all bids for the second time and to readvertise for asphaltic concrete of various thicknesses. All previous bids on this type had been greatly in excess of the money on hand to do the work, with the single exception of the 3-inch as specified by Contractor Ritchie.

The engineers, Howe & Peters, refused to endorse 3-inch pavement of this or any other type, but guaranteed 4-inch cement concrete of a certain mixture as well adapted to Sonoma's streets. Three trustees, Messrs. Bates, Bulotti and Dal Poggetto, acting on the advice of the city's engineers and adverse to their colleagues, voted down the Breitenbach-Beretta resolution and voted to accept the bid of Gorrell & Gorrell, lowest bidders on cement concrete. This action precipitated the trouble which led to the resignations of Trustees Breitenbach and Beretta Wednesday. The resignations were accepted. The Mayor will appoint to fill the two vacancies on the board.

Clean-up and Paint-up Day. Mayor Issues Proclamation For June 20th

At the regular meeting of the Trustees Wednesday night, the mayor issued a Proclamation to have a Clean-up and Paint-up day in Sonoma June 20th, (Monday). The proclamation will be published next week.

J. J. Dunbar has started for Canada and during his absence his plumbing shop will be in charge of Mr. Fisher, who has been associated with him for some time past.

SEBASTIANI NEGOTIATES FOR HOTEL PROPERTY

Makes Offer to Laurenzis for Improved Frontage Where Hotel Fior d'Italia is Located.

San Sebastiani is negotiating for business property in Sonoma and this week made an attractive offer to the Laurenzis for the frontage on the east side of the plaza which they own and which is rented to John DeCanini of the Fior d'Italia hotel.

There is said to be a disagreement on the purchase price. Mrs. Laurenzis wanting more money, although her husband is willing to accept the figures offered by Sebastiani. The papers are awaiting her signature.

Mr. Sebastiani plans to build three up-to-date concrete stores between the hotel and the Robert A. Poppe building and to modernize the hotel.

WHY WE RESIGNED

To the People of Sonoma City:

About one year ago members of the Board of City Trustees and an advisory committee of Sonoma business men, in the interest of and at the expense of the taxpayers of Sonoma, took a trip through eleven counties of this state, and many municipalities, to gather street paving information for the benefit of, and to guide the City Trustees as to what would be best for Sonoma. After interviewing many road builders and engineers they were unanimous in their report in favor of asphaltic (black) concrete. Not one of them had any recommendation to make for an all cement concrete pavement (such as Sonoma is to have). Bids were called for the lowest bid amounting to about $59,250.00 for all cement 4-inch concrete pavement, being nearly $7000 more than was available and set apart for street paving.

The engineers had admitted that they had recommended against 4-inch all cement concrete pavement to the State Highway Commission for future road paving.

The engineers also admitted that they knew nothing about the foundation of Sonoma streets, not having investigated.

An agreement had been arrived at amongst members of the Board of Trustees to reject all bids (including supplementary bid amounting to $50,750.00 for 3-inch asphaltic concrete, which could not be legally acted upon, and which would have covered all streets as voted on) and call for new bids for asphaltic concrete in three propositions for 3-in. 3½-inch and for 4-inch asphaltic concrete, which has been a success where it has been properly laid. This was voted down by a majority of the board in favor of a 4-inch all cement concrete pavement, which the trustees and their committee know has not been the success shown by asphaltic concrete pavement.

Not being in sympathy with this movement we thought it best to resign.

Respectfully,
A. BERETTA,
GEO. BREITENBACH,
Sonoma, Cal., June 2, 1921.

GIRL'S DIAMOND RING CAUSED TROUBLE

Fred Medicus Loses Sparkler and Santa Rosa Fair One Had Him Arrested. Case Dismissed.

Fred Medicus, employed by Serres and Wattrus at their Agua Caliente ranch, had the unpleasant experience of being arrested this week, all on account of a diamond ring which he says his erstwhile friend, Anita Casassa, of Santa Rosa "wished" on him one day and which he subsequently lost. When she asked him for the return of the sparkler, Medicus explained his predicament and offered to pay her for it, but they quarreled over the valuation and she suddenly had him arrested. Medicus found himself facing a grand larceny charge and was forced to get Serres and Wattrus to go on his bonds. After a few unpleasant days he told his story to the court Wednesday and the case was immediately dismissed.

HELP BOY SCOUTS TO HAVE OUTING

A subscription list is to be circulated in behalf of the Sonoma Boy Scouts, who are to have an outing in Graham's Canyon and want to buy in supplies for the trip.

The Boy Scout organization is a popular one and the community will no doubt liberally respond to the call to help the boys take the trip into the hills, and put into practice some of the excellent lessons of resourcefulness and service which they have been learning under Scout Master Burchett. Subscriptions can be given to Rev. Burchett or left at this office.

Tom Willett, employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company of Oakland was in Sonoma over the last week end renewing old acquaintances and looking over the mountain ranch where he spent his boyhood. Tom is a prosperous resident of the east bay district and says no more farming for him. He resides with his sisters in Berkeley.

High School Board Call Election For $115,000 School Building

UNDER FORTY-YEAR BONDS COST TO TAXPAYER WILL BE NO MORE THAN UPKEEP OF OLD BUILDING. ELECTION JUNE 27

The trustees of the Sonoma Valley Union High School have issued a call for a bond election on Monday, June 27th, to bond the districts for $115,000 to build the magnificent new school building designed by Architect W. H. Weeks. Under the bond plan, figures are being submitted to taxpayers showing that the proposed tax to be borne by the districts will be scarcely more than the present cost of maintaining the present school plant. Taxes last year were 48 cents for upkeep and maintenance. Under the new plan they will not be more than 60 cents.

The Sonoma high school's present tax rate is less than any other high school in Sonoma county, with the exception of Cloverdale, and with the carrying of the bond election and building of the new plant the taxes will still be lower than any other high school in this locality.

The Board of School Trustees were convinced, after careful study of the plans and the sounding out of public opinion that Sonoma valley should have a complete and modern permanent school equipment to take care of future growth and to provide adequate class rooms and gymnasium accommodations. The new school will have a capacity for 240 pupils and 10 teachers in case they are needed. The present attendance has overtaxed the capacity of the old building, and with prospects of fifty new high school students next term the trustees were confronted with the necessity of taking immediate action.

The consensus of opinion at a mass meeting last Friday night was all in favor of the complete $115,000 project rather than the building of a part of the plant or the makeshift arrangement of building more temporary structures. When figures were produced showing what it is costing the public to keep up and repair the old building, it was winning many friends and supporters for the cause.

A campaign committee consisting of Mrs. Adler, Mrs. Henry Hyde, Messrs. Hill, Burchett, Goltion, Burmeister, Chitt and Darling will launch an intensive drive to roll up a big majority for the bonds on the 27th.

Wealthy Property Owner Committed to State Hospital

It is generally reported that Mrs. Margaret Gough, owner of a fine vineyard here and a former pioneer resident of Sonoma valley, has been committed to the State Hospital at Napa. Mrs. Gough had recently been residing in Alameda county with relatives, having leased her ranch west of town.

The news of her incarceration comes as a great surprise to the community, where she transacted business daily and was regarded as entirely competent.

Mrs. John Love (Mary McGill) and little niece have been over from Antioch visiting at El Verano.

ALDRICH'S LITTLE TRAIN OF CARS BROUGHT $5000. COST SONOMA COUNTY $28,885

The Industrial railroad, with equipment, purchased by the late County Engineer Lloyd Aldrich, for $28,885, to be used for hauling mixed concrete on the Petaluma-Valley Ford county highway unit, was sold to A. R. Ba Aem at public auction by the board of supervisors this week for $5000, after it had once been withdrawn when only $2500 was offered for the road.

The road consists of a small modern locomotive, flat cars, rails, ties and other materials. It was ordered before the road work commenced, but did not arrive until within a few weeks before Aldrich left the county after expending all of the $300,000 set apart for the construction of the 16-mile Petaluma-Valley Ford highway on less than three miles of the entire road.

At the same time other valuable and costly machinery purchased by Aldrich for road work under the $1,040,000 bond issue went under the hammer, owing to the fact that the county had no use whatsoever for such materials. The prices brought were about the same, relatively, in comparison to the original cost.

Tonight Mr. Andersen is featuring an old-fashioned barn dance, by which the darkies will play and sing and there will be a good time for old as well as young at the pavilion. Every one is invited to participate.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Partridge and son, were up on Decoration Day enjoying the beauties of their handsome country home (the former Chevalier place) at El Verano. A garden and an array of the choicest birds and fowls, including golden pheasants and a grotto of canaries, over three hundred beautiful singers make their home one of the show places of the valley.

The new game law passed this year changes the open season on water fowl in all districts from October 16th to January 31st and from October 1st to January 15th. The open season on the desert, valley and mountain quail in all districts will be from November 1st to January 15th, with the exception of District No. 1, where it will be from October 15th to December 15th. WANT $7500 SCHOOL HOUSE AT WATMAUGH

Another Sonoma Valley Project to Be Undertaken by Progressive Residents of Sonoma West.

The patrons of the crowded and growing Watmaugh school district, in Sonoma West, have for some time past been very earnestly discussing the problem of taking care of increased attendance. The present little school house is inadequate and alterations would serve only to solve the problem temporarily. The latter idea had its exponents, however, and some advocated consolidation with El Verano district as a means of caring for the growing school in the vicinity of Baxterville. Pride and loyalty to Watmaugh, however, led to a spirited mass meeting last Sunday, when it was decided to bond the district and build a new $7500 school house.

Geo. Campbell, who reconsidered his determination to resign from the board of trustees in Watmaugh district, and is still on the job. Mr. Campbell sends the following report of the gathering last Sunday:

Editor Index-Tribune: The people of Watmaugh school district held a meeting last Sunday to discuss consolidation versus bonding the district for a new school house.

A resolution was adopted to bond the district for $7500, to call for plans and to hold an election in the near future. During the present year the attendance has increased rapidly. Last year there was an average of 24 pupils. This year we expect the average will be at least 10 more. During recent years this school has maintained a ten-months service. With the rapid increase of population two teachers will be required. It is also expected that harmony and good fellowship will follow in the wake of the many heated discussions which preceded Sunday's decision.

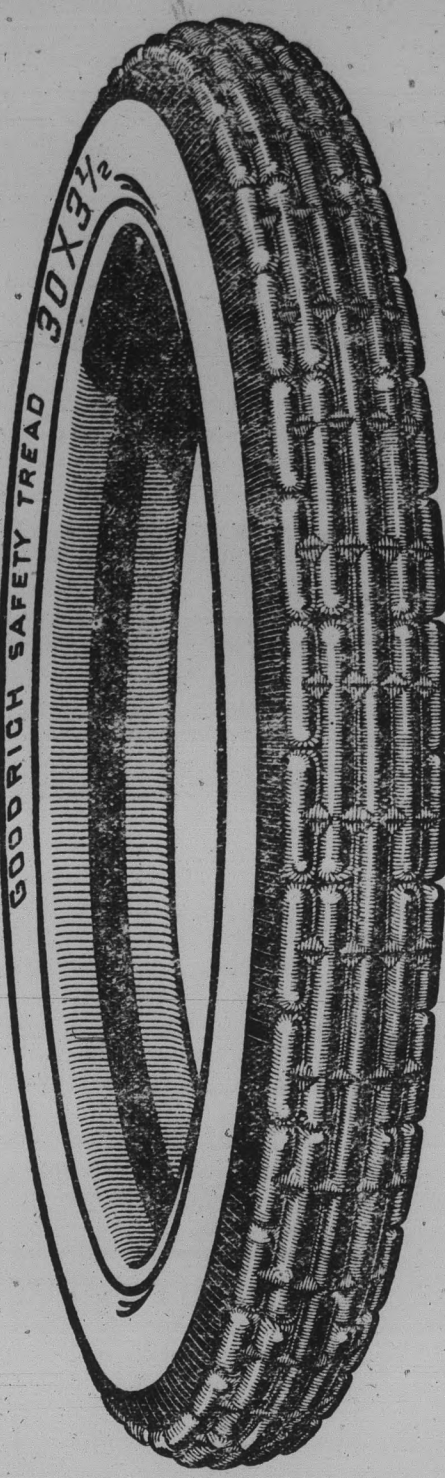

Respectfully,
GEO. CAMPBELL.

Interesting Song Service June 12th at Congregational Church

The choir of the Congregational church will give another of its enjoyable song services on Sunday evening, June 12th. The choir has been built up under the untiring leadership of Mrs. Adelaide Savacool until it now numbers about twenty members. Besides leading the singing and furnishing solos and anthems for the regular church services throughout the year, they have given sacred concerts since November 1st of last year. These concerts have been termed "The Gospel in Song," and the excellent congregations they have called forth have proven how popular these evenings have been. In these programs they have been often assisted by outside talent. Among others who have helped in this have been Mr. Frank Knole and his orchestra, Mrs. W. C. Wilson, Miss Langhorne of Alameda, Miss Henrietta Weber and Miss McIntosh, daughter of the caretaker at the Industrial Farm.

"J.N." GREEN STAMPS

After a most complete and thorough investigation of the "J.N." Green Trading Stamps—an investigation covering the plan from all angles both as to the benefits it would render our customers and the soundness of the principle upon which it is founded, we were of one opinion regarding its value and worth. A long time contract with the Sperry & Hutchinson Co., expresses that opinion in a most emphatic manner.

We know the "J.N." Green Stamps will serve us and our customers better than any other system of co-operative discount. For the past twenty-five years the "Sperry" service has stood the test and it stands today the standard by which others are judged.

The best is none too good for our customers.
